Darek Recordings is back with a gift, to end this 2011 in the best atmosphere, by sharing some sweet sounds full of positive energy. In this way, we would like to thank you and wish you a successful 2012. This free EP is delivered by Club Rayo from Argentina. With these new productions, they wanted to express some moments of their adolescence and bring them back to life, with today's sound. This time, they offer four original tracks full of groove! This release is enhanced by the remixes of Erich Bogatzky (Dieb Audio, Minimood), Junior Lopez (Sleaze, Smallroom, Acktivism), Nadja Lind (Soma, Lucidflow), and Freddy Musri (Disco Royal).

Club Rayo have a huge skill when it comes to playing and producing different styles, from Deep House up to Techno, and Tech House. This artists group, integrated by Pablo Terreil, Rafael Sorol and Federico Cogo started to work together in the summer of 1997, in Buenos Aires. Further on, they created their record label named Club Rayo Disquet, with over 30 releases launched until now. They have also organized many successful events in the capital city and are often participating inside the famous Creamfields Buenos Aires festival, besides having hosted radios shows at Radio Energy and Radio Metro between others.

Now, they will surprise you with their work full of captivating sounds and a new universe to discover, together with the remixes of four talented producers coming from Germany, Argentina and Chile. This is a perfectly balanced EP, with different House music styles, going from Deep to Tech. With something for everyone inside!

Get a Life contains vocal samples of Sagat from his 1993 Maxi Single named Funk Dat on Maxi Records. No me Digas contains vocal samples of Jimmy Somerville from his 1984 Maxi Single with Bronski Beat on London Records, Ltd and Metronome Musik GmbH.
